

Student Connection
Canadian Association on Gerontology

Connexion étudiante
Association canadienne de gérontologie

SC-CÉ Newsletter

Spring 2014 no 6

Dear SC-CÉ members,

It is my pleasure to send out our latest newsletter. I am happy to introduce Winnie Sun as your new Student Connection - Connexion Étudiante Secretary-Treasurer! In this edition, you will find important information about the 43rd Annual Scientific and Educational Meeting of the Canadian Association on Gerontology. The deadline to submit an abstract, apply for a student travel grants and join the CIHR poster competition is April 15, 2014. We hope many of you will participate to this important annual event for Canadian gerontologists.

Catherine Bigonnesse
Communications Coordinator
PhD student in Gerontology
Simon Fraser University

Your New Secretary-Treasurer

Winnie Sun graduated from the BscN program at the University of Toronto in 1995 with practice expertise in palliative care and home care. After receiving her MN degree in 2002, she became a faculty member for the Nursing program at the Trent University with teaching interests in community health nursing and gerontology. Currently, Winnie Sun is a doctoral candidate within Faculty of Nursing where she works closely with her PhD supervisor, Dr. Diane Doran, on home care patient safety research, remote patient monitoring technologies, and best practices for home care nurses. Winnie Sun is also a research fellow for the Ontario Training Centre in Health Services and Policy Research. Her doctoral dissertation is examining the relationship between therapeutic self-care ability and the occurrence of adverse events for home care clients in Ontario, Canada.

Winnie Sun
RN, MN, PhD Candidate
Faculty of Nursing
University of Toronto

Landscapes of Aging CAG 2014 ACG 2014 Panorama du vieillissement
Critical Issues, Emerging Possibilities Enjeux critiques, nouvelles possibilit es

Canadian Association on Gerontology Association canadienne de g erontologie gilbrea centre McMaster University

43RD ANNUAL SCIENTIFIC AND EDUCATIONAL MEETING
CANADIAN ASSOCIATION ON GERONTOLOGY
CAG2014.CA

16-18 OCTOBER / OCTOBRE 2014
NIAGARA FALLS, ONTARIO

43E R UNION SCIENTIFIQUE ET  DUCATIVE ANNUELLE
ASSOCIATION CANADIENNE DE G ERONTOLOGIE
ACG2014.CA

The Canadian Association on Gerontology welcomes you to Niagara Falls, Ontario for our 43rd Annual Scientific and Educational Meeting (October 16-18, 2014). Join us for Canada's premier multidisciplinary conference for those interested in individual and population aging. This year we explore the critical issues and emerging possibilities facing our aging populations in Canada and abroad.

Call for Abstracts for CAG2014

Submission Deadline: April 15, 2014

The Canadian Association on Gerontology (CAG) is pleased to announce a Call for Abstracts for CAG2014, our 43rd Annual Scientific and Educational Meeting. The meeting will be held October 16-18, 2014 in Niagara Falls, Ontario at the Sheraton on the Falls Hotel.

CAG2014 is your opportunity to share your research and other work in the field of aging with your national and international colleagues from a diverse spectrum of disciplines. Abstracts are welcomed from all disciplines and all interests in aging, including research, practice, policy and related areas. International submissions are encouraged.

Submit an Abstract for CAG2014

Student Travel Grants

Deadline: April 15, 2014

The Legacy Fund of the Canadian Association on Gerontology is pleased to provide funding to assist CAG student members to attend CAG2014: Landscapes of Aging, October 16 – 18, 2014 in Niagara Falls, Ontario, Canada.

Student travel grants are expected to cover:

- Student full conference registration ($150)
- Portion of travel costs, depending on distance from the conference location

Eligibility

- Current student member of the CAG; and
- Presenting author on an abstract accepted for presentation at CAG2014.

Apply for a Student

CIHR Poster Competition

Deadline: April 15, 2014

The CIHR Institute of Aging is again pleased to sponsor a student poster competition at CAG2014. A $500 prize will be awarded by the Institute of Aging in each of the following categories: Master's, Doctoral and Post Doctoral Fellow. Undergraduate students are not eligible.

This competition is a value-added feature of the prominent focus on student posters at our conference. All student posters are welcomed as a vital contribution to the scientific program and all accepted submissions are highlighted throughout the program in featured student poster sessions.

All poster abstracts submitted by graduate students and post doctoral fellows by the submission deadline (April 15, 2014) are considered, and the top-ranking subset in each category are automatically included as candidates in the Institute of Aging's prestigious student poster competition.

How to join the CIHR
Poster Competition

Travel Grants

CAG Student Connection SC_CAG <http://cagacg.ca/student-connection/> scce@cagacg.ca

Copyright © 2014 SC-CÉ of Canadian Association on Gerontology, All rights reserved.

unsubscribe from this list update subscription preferences

MailChimp