

Call for Nominations

Psychology Section Editor

The Canadian Journal on Aging is seeking a nomination for the Editorial Board position of Psychology Section Editor, to be filled by July 1, 2016.

The Psychology Editor is expected to be a recognized authority in his/her respective specialty. The Psychology Editor is responsible for obtaining scientific peer reviews for each manuscript allocated to him or her by the Editor-in-Chief, working in conjunction with the author(s) regarding any revisions needed, and, based on the scientific reviews, making recommendations to the Editor-in-Chief regarding whether or not a manuscript shall be accepted for publication. The Psychology Editor is a member of the Editorial Board of the Canadian Journal on Aging and is expected to participate in the annual meeting of the Editorial Board, held in conjunction with the CAG Annual Scientific and Educational Meeting. Appointment to the Editorial Board is normally for a four-year term. The Psychology Editor may not be a member of the Board of Directors of the CAG.

Nominations, along with a curriculum vitae and statement of interest in this position should be submitted, no later than June 15, 2016, to the Editor-in-Chief:
