

PROGRAM COVER AND PAINTING

The program cover was designed by Scott Arnold, Corporate Imaging Centre, London, Ontario. The painting on the program cover was painted by London artist Ingrid Connidis. Ingrid is a long time member of CAG, former Social Sciences Division Chair and Social Sciences Section Editor for the Canadian Journal on Aging. Painting provides a happy balance to her work. This painting, 'Family Trees', is an imagined composite of images based on her many walks in the woods with her yellow lab, Talbot, and reflects her ongoing personal and professional interest in family ties and aging.

GREETINGS FROM THE CONFERENCE CHAIR – JULIE MCMULLIN

On behalf of the Planning Committee, I would like to welcome you to London, the “Forest City”, for the 37th Annual Scientific and Educational Meeting of the Canadian Association on Gerontology. This year our conference theme is “Aging Globally and Locally: Seeing the Forest and the Trees”. As you will see, we have an excellent program lined up that includes international keynote speaker, Dr. Thomas Scharf, Dr. Louise Plouffe who recently spent time working with the World Health Organization, and an outstanding local panel of researchers from the University of Western Ontario. Also, don't miss our closing keynote, the evidence-based play on Alzheimer's disease, I'm Still Here.

And, don't miss the fun: A Friday night “meet and greet” at Downtown Kathy Brown's and on Saturday night, a fun-filled night of jazz music, memories, and antiques at our Antique Roadshow fundraiser. Please take the time to visit our exhibits and thank our many generous sponsors. I would personally like to thank them, the members of our local planning committee, and especially Gale Cassidy for her hard work and dedication.

Julie McMullin, PhD

HOW TO USE THIS PROGRAM

The program consists of keynote and panel plenaries, symposia, workshops, paper and poster sessions. For a quick view of the daily programming, please refer to the PROGRAM-AT-A-GLANCE section. The prefixes are as follows: 'S' identifies symposia; 'W' identifies workshops; 'P' identifies papers; 'R' identifies posters; 'RS' identifies student competition posters. Please check the Program Addendum inserted in your registration package for any changes, cancellations, and/or additions to this program.

REGISTRATION INFORMATION

REGISTRATION FEES

The registration fee includes the opening ceremonies and President's reception, all keynote sessions, your choice of concurrent sessions, breakfasts and lunches on Friday and Saturday, refreshment breaks, exhibits, and one copy of the program. Registration does not include hotel accommodations or special social events. Additional program books are available at a cost of $15.

CONFIRMATION

Receipts for payments will be in each delegate's registration package.

CANCELLATION POLICY

Requests for refunds were only accepted if made in writing before September 21, 2008. There will be no refunds for pre-conference activities unless the event is cancelled.

REGISTRATION KITS

Your registration package should include the following:

- One program book
- Identification badge
- Event tickets for which you have registered
- Promotional materials

IDENTIFICATION BADGES

Your identification badge is included in your registration package. You must wear your badge at all times for admission to the scientific program, luncheons, and exhibits. Replacement badges will be available at the registration desk for $12.

VOLUNTEER 'TREE' IDENTIFICATION BADGES

There are numerous volunteers who will be available to give you any assistance that you may require throughout the conference. Don't hesitate to ask! They are eager to help. You can easily spot a volunteer or committee member by the 'Tree' identification pin, as displayed at the registration table. Many thanks to the Veterans and the Veteran Arts staff at Parkwood Hospital of St. Joseph's Health Care Centre London for creating them.

SPOT THE DOT PROGRAM

Look for the coloured dots on name tags identifying all student delegates attending the conference. These dots serve to facilitate student networking with faculty and other researchers and professionals. Non-student conference attendees are encouraged to approach and engage "dotted" individuals. Student attendees can also use the Spot the Dot Program to identify and network with fellow students. This initiative is brought to you by the local ASEM Student Organizing Committee and the CAG-ACG Student Connection - Connexion Étudiante (SC-CÉ). The Student Connection - Connexion Étudiante (SC-CÉ) is a national network for students interested in aging issues. The SC-CÉ is organized by student members of the Canadian Association on Gerontology - Association Canadienne de Gérontologie (CAG-ACG). Watch for our events all weekend. For more information, please visit www.cagacg.ca/studentconnection or contact SC-CÉ President Anthony Kupferschmidt at scce@cagacg.ca.

ON-SITE REGISTRATION/INFORMATION DESK

On-site registration and general information will be available at the Conference Registration Desk in the Hilton 2nd Floor Foyer. Alzheimer Society of London & Middlesex

Our mission at the Alzheimer Society of London and Middlesex is to advocate for and promote the development of support services, education, and research in London and Middlesex County for those affected by Alzheimer's disease and related dementias.

Since 1982, the Alzheimer Society of London and Middlesex has provided dementia-related support in our community and the need for support has never been greater.

Right now, over 7,000 people in London and Middlesex are affected by dementia. By 2010, that number will increase by 40 per cent.

Osteoporosis Canada/Ontario Osteoporosis Strategy

Osteoporosis Canada, a registered charity, is the only national organization serving people who have, or are at risk for, osteoporosis. The organization works to educate, empower and support individuals and communities in the prevention and treatment of osteoporosis.

Osteoporosis is a disease characterized by low bone mass and deterioration of bone tissue. This leads to increased bone fragility and risk of fracture (broken bones), particularly of the hip, spine and wrist. Osteoporosis is often known as "the silent thief" because bone loss occurs without symptoms.

Osteoporosis Canada provides medically accurate information to patients, health care professionals and the public. Services to individuals with osteoporosis and the public include free publications, a bilingual toll-free information line, educational programs and referrals to self-help groups and community resources.

The Centre on Aging, University of Victoria

The Centre on Aging – a multidisciplinary research centre at the University of Victoria, with a satellite office in Ladner – contributes to the body of knowledge in aging. We conduct research in partnership with seniors and their families, community organizations, health care providers, and various levels of government. We also disseminate knowledge about aging, and provide impetus and direction to the University's aging related activities.

Our specific objectives are

- to add to the body of knowledge on aging by stimulating and conducting rigorous basic and applied research;
- to disseminate knowledge on aging to scientists, practitioners, and the public;
- to promote the translation of research findings into interventions, services, products, and policies relevant to older adults;
- to contribute to the training of skilled research personnel;
- to facilitate communication and collaboration among scholars, practitioners, government officials, and older adults;
- to provide a focus and direction to the University's and region's aging related research activities.

*WHO Age Friendly Cities: A Global Guide and A Tipping Point
Presented & Introduced by CIHR's Institute of Aging*

Thursday, October 23, 2008 – 19:00-20:30

Location: Grand Ballroom West, Hilton

Dr. Louise Plouffe manages the Knowledge Development Unit in the Division of Aging and Seniors, Public Health Agency of Canada. She has recently returned to Canada after a secondment to the World Health Organization's Ageing and Life Course Programme. At WHO, Dr. Plouffe was the principal architect of the WHO Global Age-Friendly Cities Guide, which involved groups in over 30 cities worldwide in its development. Since its release in French, English, Spanish and Portuguese in 2007, the Guide has been translated into Japanese, Chinese, Arabic and Slovenian and is being implemented in several locations worldwide, including several Canadian provinces. Dr. Plouffe has been active as well in promoting within WHO the mainstreaming of aging issues in international humanitarian action in emergencies.

KEYNOTE – Dr. Ingrid Connidis, Dr. Carol McWilliam, Dr. JB Orange and Dr. Mark Speechley

From Local to Global and Back Again: Issues, Challenges, and Opportunities

University of Western Ontario Researcher Panel, Presented by Research Western

Friday, October 24, 2008 – 08:45-10:15

Location: Grand Ballroom West, Hilton

Local research has great potential for global application, and considering the global context informs local results. Building this connection requires awareness of local and global issues, identifying and appreciating key knowledge bases, finding and acting on opportunities to apply this knowledge globally, and building further knowledge locally. Using the work of four “Forest City” researchers from the University of Western Ontario, this panel presentation illustrates the process of seeing both the trees and the forest with examples of links between local research and global concerns in multiple disciplines.

Dr. Ingrid Connidis, Professor, Sociology, explores facets of aging, family relationships, social policy and work-family balance. Dr. Carol McWilliam, Professor, Nursing, focuses on health promotion, health care practices and policy to achieve greater independence and resource for every day living amongst older people. Dr. JB Orange, Associate Professor and Director, School of Communication Sciences and Disorders, addresses language, discourse, conversation, communication and cognitive-communication disorders of adults and older adults. Dr. Mark Speechley, Associate Professor, Epidemiology and Biostatistics, focuses on falls, injuries and mobility challenges related to aging.

CIHR-IA STUDENT POSTER COMPETITION – SESSION I

The CIHR's Institute of Aging, in partnership with the Canadian Association of Gerontology, is sponsoring a student poster competition. A $500 prize will be awarded in each of the following categories: Masters, PhD, and Fellows. The winners will be announced at the Awards ceremony during lunch on Saturday, October 25th. A list of all posters in the competition can be viewed in the program.

Friday, October 24, 2008 – 10:30-12:00

Location: 2nd Floor Foyer, Hilton

CIHR-IA BETTY HAVENS AWARD IN KNOWLEDGE TRANSLATION AND AGING

The CIHR-Institute of Aging Betty Havens Award in Knowledge Translation and Aging will be presented to Drs. Marnin J. Heisel and Sharon Moore.

KEYNOTE – Dr. Kathleen Hill

Biology for Non-Biologists: An Eye on Aging
Presented & Introduced by CIHR's Institute of Aging

Friday, October 24, 2008 – 12:00-13:30 (Lunch Included)

Location: Grand Ballroom West, Hilton

Dr. Kathleen Hill is an Assistant Professor in the Department of Biology at the University of Western Ontario. Her research is focused on the study of DNA mutations in different cell types over a lifespan in mouse models of human disease. Age-related macular degeneration and glaucoma are the leading causes of blindness in Canada and both are rising in prevalence in our increasingly aged population. In Dr. Hill's newly established Experimental Eye Research Facility at the University of Western Ontario, researchers have been able to speed the rate of discovery by using mice that have been specifically bred to mimic the degeneration of the eye seen with human aging.

MEET THE CJA EDITORS

Friday, October 24, 2008 – 13:30-14:00

Location: Windsor Club Room, Hilton

The Editor-in-Chief, Dr. Mark Rosenberg, and section editors of the Canadian Journal on Aging will be available to answer questions concerning the Journal and its review process and to informally discuss plans for the upcoming year.

MEET CIHR-IA SCIENTIFIC DIRECTOR

Friday, October 24, 2008 – 13:30-14:00

Location: CIHR-IA Exhibit Booth

Take advantage of this opportunity to meet Dr. Anne Martin-Matthews, Scientific Director for the Canadian Institute of Health Research's Institute of Aging.

CIHR-IA STUDENT POSTER COMPETITION – SESSION II

The CIHR's Institute of Aging, in partnership with the Canadian Association of Gerontology, is sponsoring a student poster competition. A $500 prize will be awarded in each of the following categories: Masters, PhD, and Fellows. The winners will be announced at the Awards ceremony during lunch on Saturday, October 25th. A list of all posters in the competition can be viewed in the program.

Friday, October 24, 2008 – 14:00-15:30

Location: 2nd Floor Foyer, Hilton

LEADERSHIP & NETWORKING OPPORTUNITIES FOR CANADIAN GERONTOLOGY STUDENTS WORKSHOP

Friday, October 24, 2008 – 14:00-15:30

Location: Windsor Club Room, Hilton

Join your student colleagues and a panel of speakers for an interactive discussion of local, provincial, national and international networking and engagement opportunities available to Canadian students.

Topics will range from mentorship and volunteer leadership positions to knowledge transfer and funding opportunities. This workshop is organized by the CAG-ACG Student Connection - Connexion Étudiante (SC-CÉ) in collaboration with the BC Network for Aging Research (BCNAR) and the National Initiative for the Care of the Elderly (NICE). Workshop attendees will be encouraged to ask questions, provide feedback and share personal experiences.

FRIDAY NIGHT SOCIAL

Friday, October 23, 2008 – 20:00-

Location: Downtown Kathy Brown's, above Honest Lawyers, Dundas Street

A DJ will play a good mix of modern hits for dancing or listening. We will have a selection of appetizers and lots of door prizes. A full menu is available as well. Downtown Kathy Brown's is located above the Honest Lawyer at 228 Dundas Street, just 2 blocks from the Hilton.

CAG BOARD GOVERNANCE DISCUSSION OVER BREAKFAST

Saturday, October 25, 2008 – 07:30-08:30

Location: Duke of Connaught Room, Hilton

CAG and Governance, it is timely to reflect upon the current governance structure of our Association. There have been no significant changes in the governance structure for a number of years. In 1998, chairs-elect were dropped from the Board; and in 2002, a student member was added and a member-at-large was removed. During this time, our membership base has declined to about 500, while student representation has increased.

We need to ask ourselves some fundamental questions: Does having a Board based on divisions still make sense when it is increasingly difficult to find individuals prepared to represent the divisions on the Board? Given the very small number of elections to any Executive or Board position in many years, is this an indication that the membership feels disenfranchised from the decision making of our Association? What governance structure would enhance the ability of CAG to address its mandate and mission?

The primary goal of this round table is to provide a framework to discuss all options related to governance of CAG.

SC-CE BREAKFAST & ANNUAL GENERAL MEETING

Saturday, October 25, 2008 – 07:30-08:30

Location: Suite 300, Hilton

Come join other students and recent graduates for a light breakfast and some roundtable discussion at the CAG-ACG Student Connection – Connexion Étudiante (SC-CÉ) Annual General Meeting. Meet the SC-CÉ Executive Committee and Members-at-Large, learn more about SC-CÉ activities across the country and abroad, and help contribute to our strategic directions for the coming years.

KEYNOTE – Dr. Thomas ScharfUnfriendly Cities? Ageing and Social Exclusion in Urban NeighbourhoodsPresented by the Legacy Fund & Introduced by Dr. Norah Keeting, Former Chair, Legacy Fund

Saturday, October 25, 2008 – 08:45-10:15

Location: Grand Ballroom West, Hilton

Professor Thomas Scharf is Professor of Social Gerontology and Director of the Centre for Social Gerontology at Keele University, UK. His research encompasses the fields of social gerontology, social policy and political science. The keynote address argues that, while critical gerontology has succeeded in highlighting some of the structural sources of inequality and disadvantage in old age, it has largely overlooked the relevance of environmental factors in relation to the experience of aging. Building on a growing body of work in environmental gerontology, and reflecting increasing policy interest in age-friendly environments, this paper examines the experience of aging in urban areas which pose a range of risks to older people's well-being.

LUNCH, AWARDS CEREMONY & ANNUAL GENERAL MEETING

Saturday, October 25, 2008 – 12:00-13:30

Location: Grand Ballroom West, Hilton

Please join us for lunch, the CAG Awards Ceremony, and Annual General Meeting. Celebrate the CAG Award Winners: CAG Donald Menzies Bursary – Paulette Hunter; CAG Margery Boyce Bursary – Caroline Thomson; CAG Distinguished Member – Neena Chappell; and CAG Evelyn Shapiro Mentoring Award – Victor Marshall.

All delegates are invited to attend the AGM, but please note that only CAG members can vote.

MEET CIHR-IA SCIENTIFIC DIRECTOR

Saturday, October 25, 2008 – 13:30-14:00

Location: CIHR-IA Exhibit Booth

Take advantage of this opportunity to meet Dr. Anne Martin-Matthews, Scientific Director for the Canadian Institute of Health Research's Institute of Aging.

T.E.A (TRAINING EXCELLENCE IN AGING)
WITH DR. ANNE MARTIN-MATTHEWS, CIHR-IA SCIENTIFIC DIRECTOR

Saturday, October 25, 2008 – 14:00-15:30

Location: Prince of Wales Room, Hilton

As part of the Canadian Research Forum on Aging, sponsored by CIHR's Institute of Aging, a 90 minute grant crafting workshop will be held for graduate students, post graduate fellows, and new investigators.

CLOSING KEYNOTE – "I'M STILL HERE"A Research Informed Play about Alzheimer's DiseasePresented by RBJ Schlegel-University of Waterloo Research Institute for Aging*Introduced by Josie d'Avernas, Associate Director, RBJ Schlegel – University of Waterloo Research Institute for Aging with closing comments by Jean-Guy Souliere, Chair, Council of Seniors

Saturday, October 25, 2008 – 16:00-17:30

Location: Theatre, First Floor, Convention Centre

I'm Still Here is a powerful research-based play that captures important aspects of, and deepens understanding about, the dementia journey from the perspectives of persons living with dementia and their family partners in care. The play brings deeply moving experiences shared by persons with dementia and their family members during research to life through dramatic performance. The intent of the play is to help diminish any unnecessary suffering that can come with living with dementia due to misunderstandings and stigma.

I'm Still Here had its live debut performance in 2004 at MAREP's A Changing Melody forum and both the live drama and the DVD version of it have since been viewed by people around the world to great acclaim. I'm Still Here was written by Vrenia Ivonoffski, a playwright and the Artistic Director of ACT II Studio at Ryerson University, with researchers Gail Mitchell and Christine Jonas-Simpson. It is performed by actors from ACT II Studio.

SC-CE STUDENT SOCIAL NIGHT OUT

Saturday, October 25, 2008 – 18:00 -

All students and recent graduates are invited to attend an enjoyable evening out on the town. Meet at the SC-CÉ Book Display Booth at 18:00 and we will walk over to Fellini Koolini's in downtown London (155 Albert St.) for dinner. Both meat and vegetarian options are available. Dinner will be followed by social time at The Martini Bar, located above the restaurant.

Don't miss this opportunity to relax after a busy conference, play some pool, catch up with old friends, and make new friends from across the country. All attendees are responsible for their own costs. This social event is brought to you by the local ASEM Student Organizing Committee and CAG-ACG Student Connection-Connexion Étudiante (SC-CÉ).

DINNER AND ANTIQUE ROADSHOW SOCIAL NIGHT

Saturday, October 24, 2008 – 18:30-23:00

Location: Ballroom 1 & 8, Convention Centre

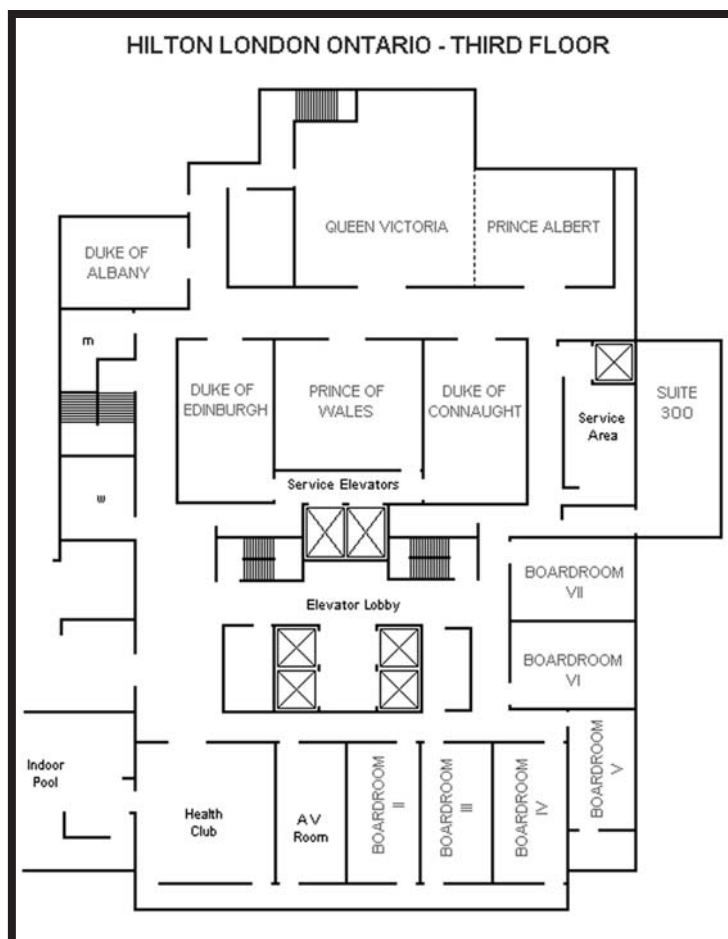

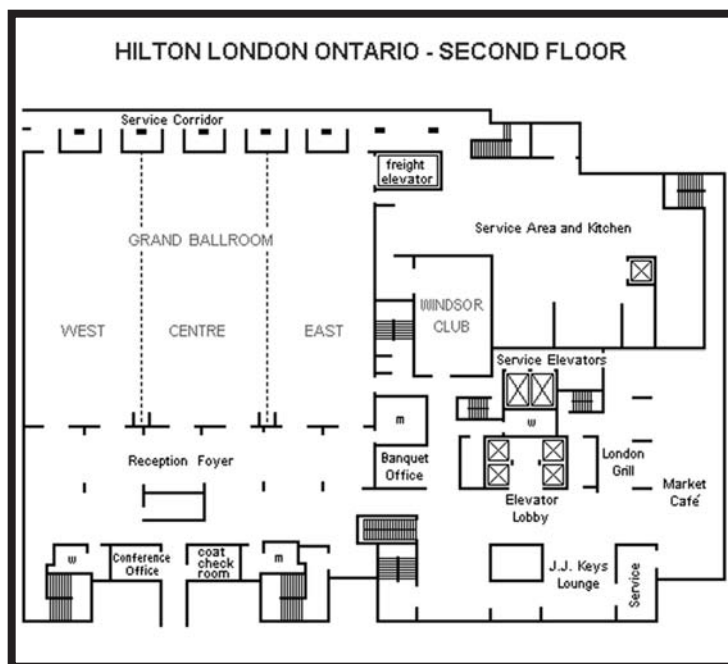

Join us for a fun night filled of food, antiques, memories, and music. Enjoy dinner and jazz music by Jennifer Fagan. For a nominal fee, you can have your special antiques evaluated by London antique experts. Share your memories about your special item with your friends and emcee, Julie Simpson. Cash Bar. Tickets are $75 and can be purchased at the registration desk on a first come basis. A tax receipt will be issued for a portion of the price of regular priced tickets. Proceeds from this event will support the Alzheimer Society London & Middlesex & CAG-ACG.

"VOICES OF YOUTH THROUGH IMAGES OF AGING" – VIDEO PRESENTATION

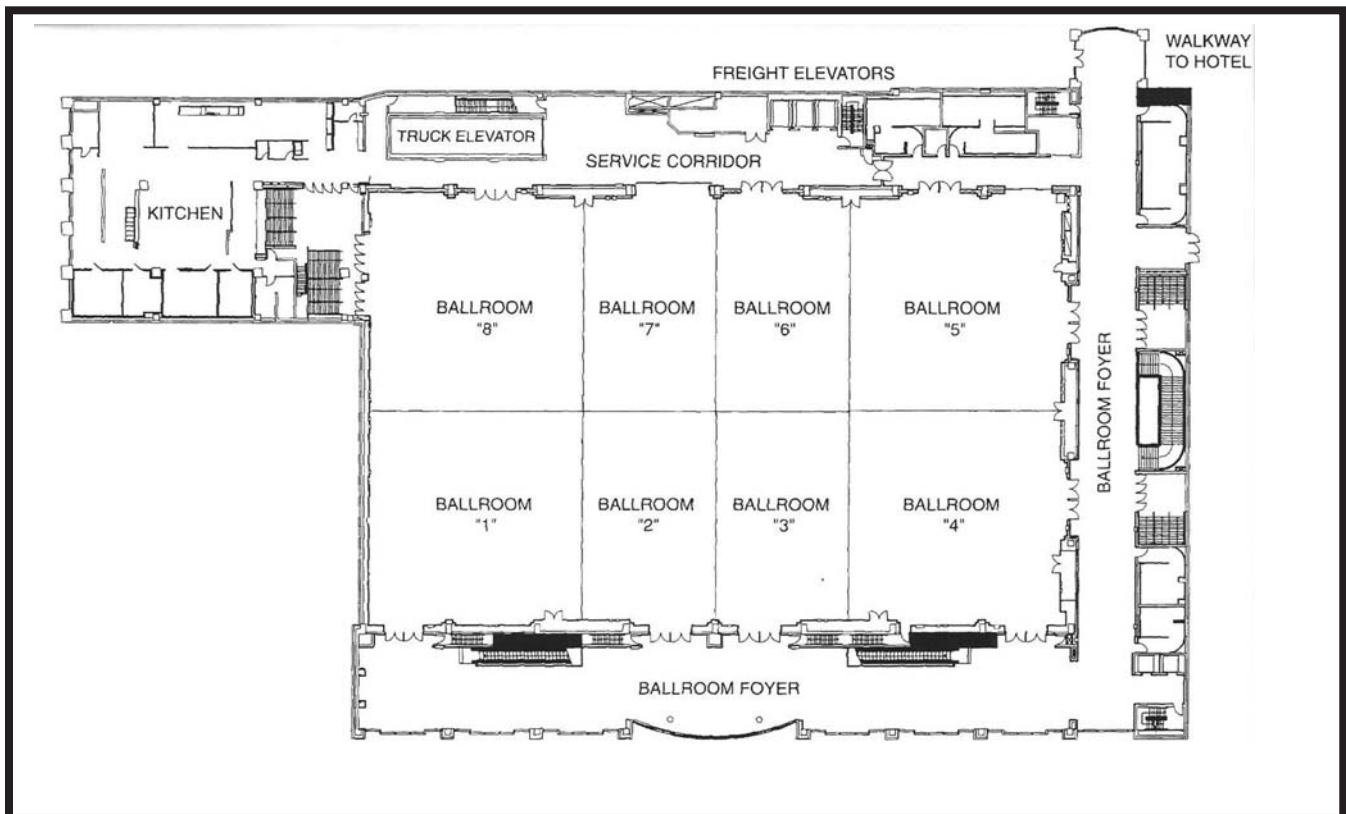

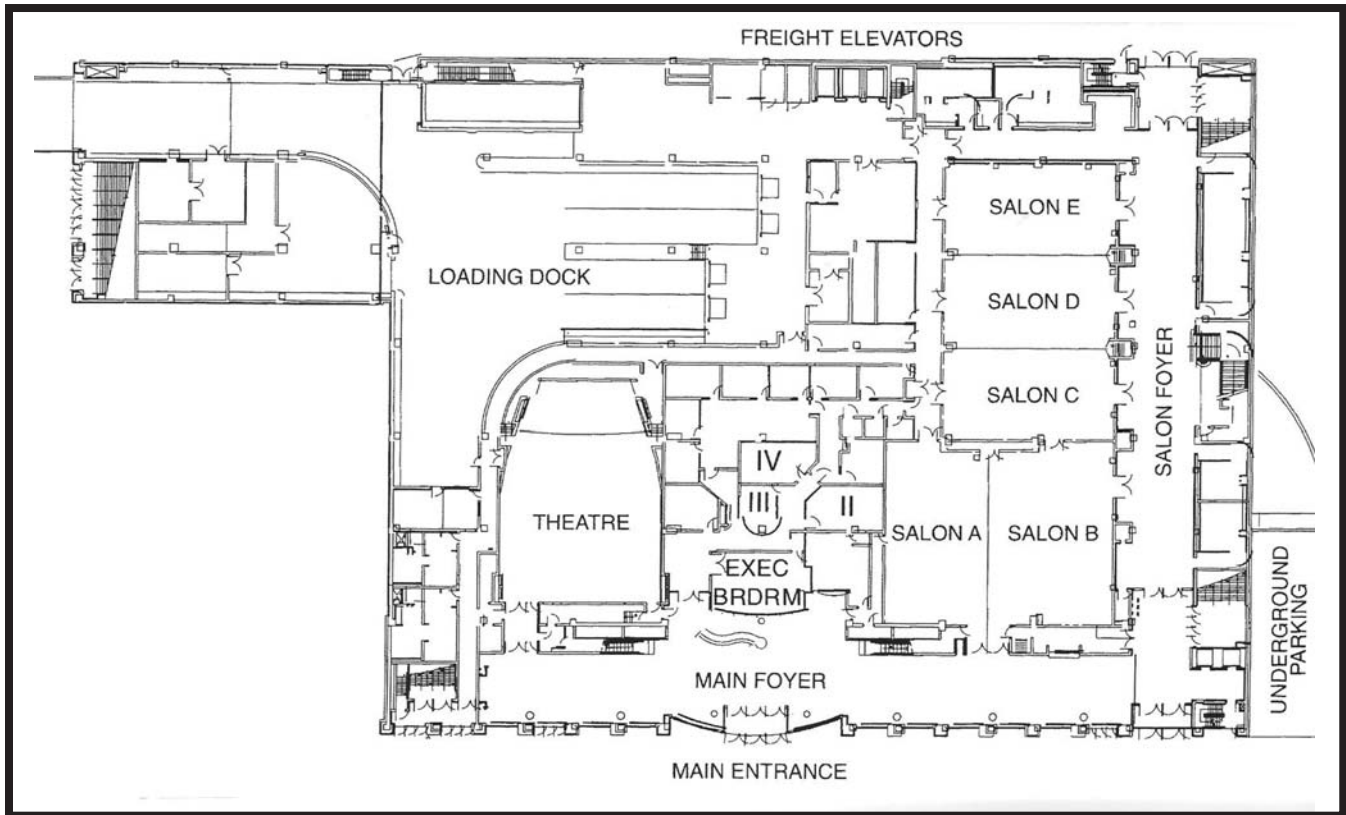

During Exhibit Hours

Location: Exhibit Hall, Grand Ballroom East, Hilton

The video "Voices of Youth through Images of Aging" was produced from materials created by 3rd and 4th year Bachelor of Health Sciences students at the University of Western Ontario. Assignments in the course Health Issues in Aging required a student to identify or simulate an issue in aging, take a photograph and write a short narrative. Students also worked in groups to advocate for one issue they wanted to see changed. Special thanks to the course instructor Dr. Aleksandra Zecevic; teaching assistants Christine Cullion, Olga Theou, Kristyn Leitch and Stephane Vlachos; video producer Nicholas Chauvin and 178 students in the HS345 2007-2008 course.

PRE-CONFERENCE WORKSHOPS1. *Mobility and Cognition in Older Adults: An Entangled RelationshipPresented by CIHR-IA and Lawson Health Research Institute*Thursday, October 23, 2008 – 08:30-18:00*Lunch Included; Wine & Cheese Networking Session Follows*Location: Queen Victoria & Prince Albert Room, Hilton*Description

Substantial increases in the numbers of Canadians 65 years of age and older are projected over the next 20 years. Increased life expectancy is often accompanied by disability, with a substantial portion of this disability stemming from two major geriatric syndromes: mobility and cognitive impairment. Walking is an important marker of mobility, and there is evidence that older people usually walk slower than when they were younger. This gait slowing is often attributed to “normal” aging although it has been demonstrated that slow gait velocity is a marker of preclinical diseases. Similarly, aging is associated with decreases in cognitive functioning and the development of dementia. It has been estimated that 8% of Canadians aged 65 and older meet the criteria for dementia and this prevalence increases to 35% in people over age 85. Further, mobility and cognitive impairment appear to become more related as people age. Specifically, gait slowing and dementia often co-exist in the same individual and have been attributed to changes in specific brain regions and may contribute to an increased risk of falls and disability.

This workshop will discuss this entangled relationship between mobility and cognition as people age and explore possibilities for a unified research approach to these prevalent syndromes. We will provide a forum for exchange of vanguard national and international health research knowledge in this emerging research area. From basic mechanisms and epidemiological evidence we will move to the whole person in their environment and set the stage for potential interventional strategies and areas of inquiry during roundtable interaction.

2. Are You Ready? Creating Change in Dementia Care Presented by Alzheimer Society of Canada and Ontario and MAREP

Thursday, October 23, 2008 – 10:00-15:00

Lunch Included

Location: Prince of Wales Room, Hilton

Description

450,000 Canadians over the age of 65 currently have Alzheimer's disease or a related dementia (ADRD). Over the next several decades, the number of persons with dementia is projected to increase dramatically, reaching an estimated three-quarter of a million people by 2031. What will this mean for you, your workplace, and your community? Presented jointly by the Murray Alzheimer Research and Education Program (MAREP), the Alzheimer Society of Canada, and the Alzheimer Society of Ontario, this interactive session will introduce you to a new framework and the resources necessary to drive change towards building healthy, supportive communities for people living with dementia that will benefit all citizens.
